

PAY CAR HURLED OFF TRACK IN YARD COLLISION

Threatened Strike Leads to Investigation of N. Y.
& N. H. Wreck.

Following the threatened strike of employees, a misplaced switch early to-day caused a head-on collision between two locomotives in the West Haven yards of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, smashed a pay-car, injured four men and tangled the paymaster and his assistants with thousands of dollars in cash and flying safes and writing desks, and threw the yards about the foot of Brook avenue into great confusion.

The responsibility for the wreck has not yet been fixed on any certain employee. A strict investigation is in progress, and the company has maintained secrecy in regard to the identity of the men in the pay-car at the time of the smash.

Whether the railroad officials hold that some dissatisfied person threw the switch intentionally, or that it was merely an accident, remains to be brought out after the investigation is complete.

The injured men are Ralph Melis, thirty-three years old, a brakeman, of New Haven, whose foot was crushed; Thomas Flynn, watchman, forty, of No. 81 East One Hundred and Fifty-sixth street, shoulder dislocated; Robert Jarvis, twenty-seven, a brakeman, of No. 550 East One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street, fingers mangled; James Delaney, twenty-six, brakeman, of No. 571 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, cut about the eyes.

The pay-car was on the switch at the foot of Brook avenue, near Harlem River, when, suddenly, a locomotive with four passenger cars attached, took the switch and rushed upon the engine attached to the pay-car. The firemen and engineers jumped for their lives and escaped without injury.

Both engines were badly damaged and the pay-car was knocked from its trucks, while its contents were sent flying in every direction. Glass was broken from the windows of the passenger cars and splinters flew all about.

The paymaster and his four helpers were hurled to the floor of the car and had all they could do to prevent safes and desks from falling and rolling on them.

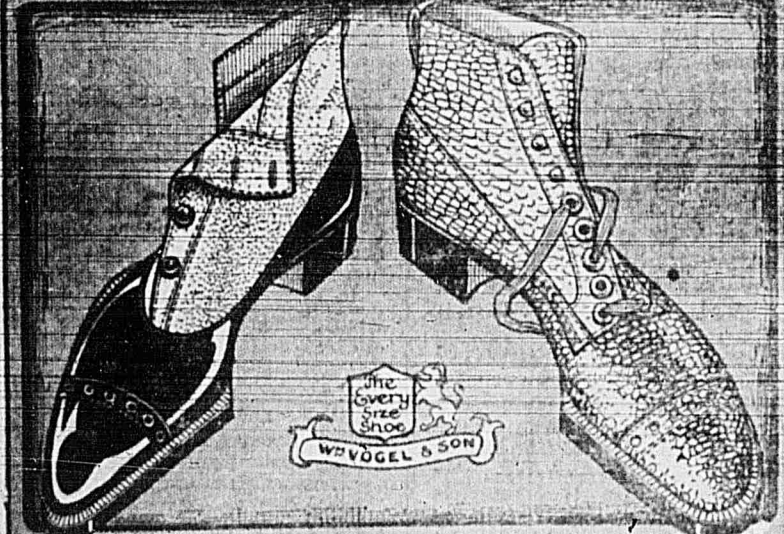

Policeman Daniel Ward, of the Alexander Avenue Station, heard the noise of the wreck and summoned an ambulance from Lincoln Hospital, which came with Dr. Kauffold in charge. The doctor attended to the injured and they were sent to their homes. None was seriously hurt.

Another engine was called and the pay-car was taken on to its next stop, while the paymaster and his helpers set to work to straighten out the financial problem and collect the pay envelopes from the floor.

Young Actor Probably Will Never Appear on Stage Again.

Joseph Wheelock, Jr., who is suffering from tuberculosis of the glands, will undergo an operation at Roosevelt Hospital to-morrow, and his friends in "The Out of College," which he was forced to close with a few days ago on account of his failing health, are telling mournfully how he remarked when saying good-bye to them that he would perhaps never again meet them on the stage. A year ago he submitted to an operation for the trouble, but this fall the disease returned.

"Every Size Shoes" for Men at $3 Present Every Shoe Goodness

The usual shoe at $3 is wholly the product of a mechanical process—hand work gets no nearer to it than operating the machines which makes it.

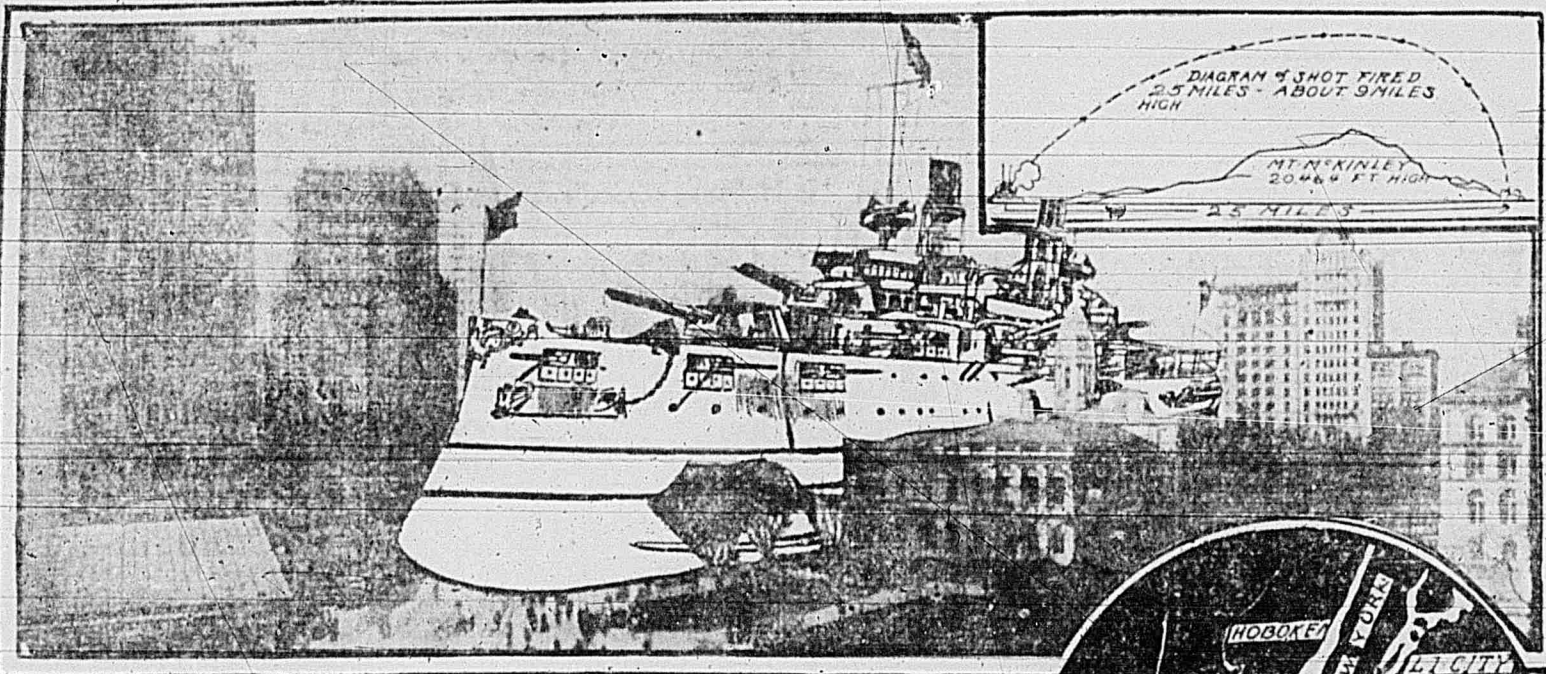

The unusual shoe is our "Every Size." Hand work brings it so close to those that custom bootmakers turn out at $6 and $7, that you can hardly tell the difference.

"Every Size Shoes" come in every size, and last size from 4 to 12 and every width from AA to EE, in all leathers. Button or lace styles.

AMERICAN RIVALS TO GREAT BATTLESHIP DREADNOUGHT WILL HAVE A DIAMETRICAL FIRING RANGE OF 50 MILES

Anchored in Bay, They Could Destroy New York and Suburbs in New Jersey and Hurl Shells to Yonkers.

Experts are working on the plans for Uncle Sam's two first-class battleships of the size of the great 2000-ton war vessel, the Dreadnaught, of the United States Navy.

The Dreadnaught has been a ship since she was launched. She carries ten 12-inch guns, each capable of putting a shot twenty-five miles.

Only by comparison with other things is the vastness of the range of the new battleships made clear.

HARD SERIES PROMISED IN INTERSTATE LEAGUE.

Jersey City bowlers in the five-men team of the National Interstate League will visit the Grand Central alleys.

Brooklyn, Friday night to meet the Brooklyn, and a hot series of three games may be expected. Coming on a night when there is no counter attraction, a big bunch will cross this bridge to watch these games.

To date Brooklyn has the lead in the standings of the eight clubs who are making a very pretty and exciting race for the championship.

Newark's championship, Newark's defeat of New York on Tuesday night has put the strong John Wengert in the lead.

Other League games Friday night are as follows: Elizabeth at New Brunswick, and New Haven at Trenton.

WOMEN HOLD PRIZE
BOWLING CONTESTS.

Two of the popular women's clubs in Brooklyn are holding prize bowling contests this afternoon and evening at Hudson's, Broadway and Myrtle avenue. The Lady Mottles have engaged a whole floor, while at the Fulton Palace, No. 300 Fulton street, the Fulton Palace Ladies will conduct their annual competition. Good prizes are offered.

Sixty members of the Riverside Bowling Club have arranged for an informal dance and prize bowling at the Riverside, Seventh avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, for Sunday evening, Nov. 1. Members of this club are young women well known in Harlem society circles, who roll every Sunday afternoon, and many of them are able to roll high scores. This is one of the largest clubs for women in the greater city.

The Cheyenne Bowling Club, for young women has been organized at Park Row and Prospect avenue and East One Hundred and Sixtieth street, Bronx. Sunday afternoon men are admitted to the games. Officers elected are as follows: President, Anna Guttman; treasurer, Matilda Cohen; secretary, Evelyn Becker; captain, Anna Rosenberg.

STRIKES AND SPARES.
The Albion team of Smith and Watt, two of the strongest match bowlers in the city, is out of the running for a time. Watt is confined to the house with a severe cold.

Riddell and Dumas ought to be a tough proposition for the way they are going in the Manhattan tournament. They have averages of 200 for fifty games.

Johnny Vorheis has again struck his cat, and with his new rubber ball is pounding the pins for higher scores than any bowler in the greater city. A match between Vorheis and Jimmy Smith at this time would pack the largest alleys in the city.

There is a series of hot games in store for spectators at the White Elephant on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and probably on Monday. The alleys have just been planned and are in superb condition.

Merker and Schulteis will roll a match contest of two six out of eleven games for a side bet of $5 at the White Elephant on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Brooklyn alleys owners report a greatly increased business over last season, particularly on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The White Elephant, which has been the scene of the big Thanksgiving Day game at the Polo Grounds with Holy Cross, which has recently been arranged.

Fordham vs. Villanova, Saturday. At Fordham University Field on Saturday the strong Fordham eleven will have Villanova as their opponents. Villanova has always proved a strong opponent for the local team, and the game will be the best tryout of the season for the big Thanksgiving Day game at the Polo Grounds with Holy Cross, which has recently been arranged.

Fifteen five-men teams made up of members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will play a tournament at Quince's Grand Central Alley, No. 361 Fulton street, Brooklyn, to-night. They will roll on Place either of the floating fighting machines in City Hall Park and the municipal building would be awarded to the size of a peanut. The battleship would extend almost from Broadway to Park Row and tower high above the Post Office and the City Hall.

The line of trajectory for a shot fired from one of the 12-inch guns is nine miles high, an altitude more than twice greater than that of Mount McKinley.

NEW WRINKLE IN BOWLING TOURNEYS

Ten-Men Team Contest of Old-Time Clubs Starts in Brooklyn.

There's a new wrinkle in bowling tournaments, and it is making a great hit over in Brooklyn, where Lou Jenkins, of the Elephant club alleys, Fulton street, near Marcy avenue, has developed the new idea of ten-men contests between the old bowling clubs who used to pound the hammer at these alleys before Jimmy Smith and some of the new champions were out of swaddling-clothes.

To-morrow night the two teams in the competition will be the Superbas and the Schulteis. Charley Ebbets heads the former and Henry Medous, both good bowlers, the latter, and glory to them, what a joshing time there will be when these two officials of the Brooklyn Bowling Club meet on the alleys. The series consists of at least two out of three games.

There will be a great deal of timber-breaking by Col. Sellers, Bert Miller, Fred Schwartz, the German champion, formerly of Broadway, Drs. Houghton and Taylor, Nate Harrison and the best bowler in the city, Lou Jenkins and a fast bowler in the city, this is the nineteenth year of bowling competition for the Superbas, originally organized by the Schulteis.

The Schulteis, Pin Knights, Metropolitan Club and several other teams in Brooklyn were rolled on the Elephant alleys will roll later in this tournament, which brings to

WORLD'S RECORD MADE IN HEAD-PIN TOURNEY.

Members of the Roseville five-men team are very happy to-day because they broke the world's record for head-pin rolling in the Eastern tournament last night at Frank Samuels's Harlem Circle alleys, One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street, near Third avenue. Their score was 44 out of a possible 60.

This team should be a dangerous competitor in the Evening World's annual free head-pin tournament, which will be held at the White Elephant next month.

The Rosevilles were rolling against the Tuxedo team, and the individual scores were as follows: Meyer, 12; Olanoff, 10; Crum, 10; Wood, 10; and Van Ness, 10. The highest previous score for a five-men team was 33 made by the engineers at Dan French's alleys some years ago.

GRAND CENTRAL ALLEYS

Joe Smith defeated Gus Langefeld in the best six out of eleven games at the Grand Central, Brooklyn, last night. The contest was very close and exciting, as will be seen by the scores: Smith—192, 181, 169, 158, 231, 208, 167, 175, 204, 170, 210.

Langefeld—113, 156, 164, 178, 161, 121, 152, 211, 201, 187, 184.

A match contest of unusual interest and conditions has been arranged between the Evening Sun and Evening Mail teams in the Newspaper League to be rolled on the Grand Central Alleys, Sunday afternoon. There will be an individual, two, three and five-men series of contests.

THE DIFFERENCE

The only apparent difference between collars made of Linen and collars made of cotton is the "Triangle Linen" mark—and that's worth looking for. To protect you against inferior cotton collars, the Government says that only linen collars can be stamped "Linen."

So when you buy collars be sure the words "Triangle Linen" are stamped on them—then you get what you pay for. Triangle Collars are guaranteed Linen. They're 4-ply, too, and their three-thread eyelet button-holes do not tear like the slit button holes in most 15c. collars.

You can get any style you like in Triangle Linen Collars in quarter sizes, and the price is 15c. (2 for 25c.) Most dealers have a full assortment of popular styles. If yours hasn't the style you want, write us and we'll see that you get it.
